About Alzheimer's New Jersey®

Alzheimer's New Jersey, founded in 1985, is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing programs and services to New Jersey families that are impacted by Alzheimer's disease and dementia and helping to advance research for a cure. Formerly known as Alzheimer's Association Greater New Jersey Chapter, our new name – Alzheimer's New Jersey - reflects our commitment to individuals and families in our local communities. Over 500,000 New Jerseyans are struggling to cope with the daily challenges of Alzheimer's disease and dementia. Alzheimer's New Jersey offers Education and Training programs, Family Support Groups, the Respite Care and Wellness Program, a toll-free telephone Helpline, Always Safe®, Care Consultations and the Clinical Trial Connections® program. With our new name, our dedication to local programs and services is stronger than ever. For more information about Alzheimer's disease or Alzheimer's New Jersey, please call 973.586.4300, or visit the Web site at alznj.org®.
