

ALZHEIMER'S NEW JERSEY
DIRECTOR OF PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Alzheimer's New Jersey founded in 1985 is a non-profit organization dedicated to providing services and support to Alzheimer's disease and dementia individuals and families in New Jersey.

We are very pleased to announce our recruitment for a Director of Programs and Services. This is a key senior level leadership position responsible to provide strategic leadership and daily management and oversight to ensure that every program and service offered to the community is delivered successfully and adds the highest possible mission-focused value to our organization. Responsibilities include community needs assessment, participation in strategic planning, program management as well as design and implementation of evaluation strategies.

The ideal candidate should be an accomplished and skilled health and social services professional with proven knowledge in the fields of aging, dementia, and/or neuro-degenerative chronic diseases, with experience in leading and managing health and social service programming. Excellent organization, interpersonal communication and relationship building are also essential.

An MS/MA degree in management or a health-related/relevant field is required, (a BA/BS degree with 10+ years of proven success in a similar position may be considered). Additional licensure and/or certification in a relevant area of practice such as public health, nursing or social work is desirable.

The position is full-time based in our headquarters office in Roseland, NJ. The position requires candidates to have the ability to travel as needed to support community outreach and delivery, and represent the organization in key activities across the state, as well as, to have schedule flexibility to support occasional evening and weekend activities as required.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits package, and the opportunity to work alongside wonderful and dedicated staff and volunteers. We are an equal opportunity employer that embraces and welcomes diversity.

Please submit in confidence, a cover letter of introduction that includes your salary requirements along with a copy of your current CV or resume to:
